As you've likely heard by now, RMACT is in the throes of planning a regional conference scheduled for April 12-13 2007 in Denver, CO. ACT members, as well as transportation professionals from every discipline, will be invited to attend The New West: Pioneer in Moving People at the beautiful Oxford Hotel. The event will be followed by the ACT National Board's spring meeting.

This informative event will provide a comprehensive look at recent transportation innovations and the impact of light rail on housing, commuting, traffic congestion, air quality and development in the Rocky Mountain region. The symposium will be a draw for industry professionals, business leaders, elected officials and other important decision makers around the region.

Volunteers are needed to make this event a success! A conference planning group has divided into program, sponsorship, marketing, hospitality and registration committees. To volunteer for a committee, please email any of the Board members listed at left, or attend our next meeting, scheduled for December 4 at 10:00am at UrbanTrans in Denver.
